Products

Whitebay are holders of 6 silver medals for their lavender oils.

Pure lavender essential oil can now be purchased either directly from the retail shop, or the company's website where you will find more than 70 products to choose from. Other essential lavender oil based products include all-natural hand and body creams and washes, bath soak, salve, hydrosols, balm and soaps.

Among the gourmet-quality food products are lavender mustard, lavender & lemon salad dressing, lavender honey, dried lavender for use as a culinary herb and wonderful lavender teas.

In summer Whitebay is a hive of activity. Tours can be organised any time, any day, giving visitors a unique snapshot of our lavender cultivation, from planting through to end products. Depending on the time of year, our friendly staff will guide you through the lavender fields and our own lavender distillery, concluding with an opportunity to smell and sample the large inviting range of lavender products on sale.
